

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1892.

NO. 80

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The union services will be held at the Baptist church Sunday night.

—The telephone line between this place and Danville has been completed and will be opened for business in a few days. The office here will be in the Record-Homestead building.

—The band boys are thinking of giving a promenade concert at the courthouse on the evening of the 29th. As we have no opera house doubtless an entertainment of this kind would be well patronized.

—Mr. D. M. Lackey, who has been on duty as U. S. gauger at Silver Creek, has been assigned to duty at W. H. Traylor's distillery. Mr. John M. Duncan, who has been on duty at Traylor's, goes on duty in Anderson county. The change takes place to-day.

—Dr. Tom Hood gave an elegant entertainment at his residence, Monday evening, in honor of his friends, Messrs. George Robinson and John L. Anderson, it being their birthday. Robinson was 40 years of age and Anderson 52.

—Sam Jennings and Charles White had a difficulty Monday night in which several shots were exchanged. White received a pistol ball in the right foot and, strange to say, Jennings was wounded in the same place. Jennings' wound is extremely painful and it is feared that amputation will be necessary. White is not seriously injured.

—The question as to the circuit court clerkship is not settled yet. As previously stated in this column, the board gave the certificate of election to Mr. Broadus. Mr. Mason has served notice of contest on Mr. Broadus and will proceed to take depositions of the election officers in the contested Bryantville precinct, consequently it will be some time before the matter is finally settled.

—Mrs. Ed Montgomery and daughter are visiting Miss Della Hughes. Mrs. Juliet Gill Rodgers has returned to her home in Bloomington, Ind. Mr. Bud Crook, of Richmond, was in town this week. Prof. Meister went to Cincinnati this week to purchase more goods for his confectionery and employ a baker. Mr. J. T. Eason has returned to his work as mail clerk on the C. & S. road. Mr. R. A. Burnside, who has been sick, is out again. Mr. W. H. Collier has returned to Louisville. Misses Albie and Bessie Marksby will leave Monday for a two week's visit to their sister, Mrs. A. H. Rice, at Paducah.

—Mr. R. E. Hughes, city editor of the Record-Homestead, and Miss Marguerite Miller, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, on Danville avenue, Wednesday evening, by Rev. Heddlston, of the Presbyterian church. The attendants were Misses May Miller and May Hughes and Messrs. John Anderson and W. H. Collier. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left, via Danville for an extended trip through the South. We join with the entire community in wishing them a life of bliss that will never be marred by a stumbling block along life's rugged road.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Dr. Scott, father-in-law of President Harrison, died Tuesday, aged 90.

—Mrs. Amelia Cobb, wife of Benson Cobb, died Monday night, near Richmond, of pleurisy.—Climax.

—The late Mrs. Dickey, of Nicholas county, should be accounted an exceptionally blessed mother. Though she lived 84 years and was 43 years a widow, all her seven children survive her.

—Miss Kate Napier, of the Maywood section, died a few days ago of consumption, aged 30. She was a daughter of the late P. H. Napier and had been a tried and true Christian for many years. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bastin, whose sister she was, came down to be present at the last scenes.

—Of a complication of diseases, finally affecting the heart, Mr. Lewis Daddarar breathed his last Monday night, after many months' illness, aged 66. A member of the Christian church for years, no man stood higher in his community for uprightness and morality, together with all the virtues that go to make up a good citizen, husband and neighbor. He married Miss Annie Taylor in his younger days and she is left to mourn his loss. They never had any children of their own, but there was never a time that they did not have those of other people to raise, eight at least having received the same affection and care as parents bestow on their offspring. An unusually good man has fallen and his entire community mourns. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. Collier and J. G. Livingston, at Goshen, after which the remains were interred in the old family burying-ground, hard by.

—The nearly complete count shows the vote in North Dakota so close that it will depend upon the vote of 120 Indians, whose right to the ballot is contested. With these the Harrison electors have 15 majority; without them, the Weaver electors will be elected.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—We have had considerable rain lately and the river is fuller than it has been for some time.

—James H. Thomas' school will close at this place on Tuesday, Dec. 6th, and on Wednesday night, Dec. 7th, if no providential hindrance, there will be a grand exhibition at the Christian church where all are invited to attend.

—A matrimonial revival has taken place in this county since our last. License for the following couples have been issued: Nathan G. Farris to Miss Mary Ellen Whitehead, James Prosser to Miss Sarah Taylor; David Marples to Miss Nancy J. Lyons; Leslie Spears, colored, to Miss Sarah Lapeley; Charlie Vest to Miss Mary E. Rigney.

—Our town has been very peaceful and quiet for some time. On Monday night the spell was broken. It was soon after dark and after supper at the Wilkinson Hotel; nobody anticipated any trouble, when there was a loud report and ominous silence for a short time, followed by the distressing voice of a female and then the groans of the victim—the deadly pistol had gotten in its work once more. It was soon found that William Wilkinson, son of the landlord of the Wilkinson Hotel, had shot with fatal effect Willis McCoy (colored), an employee of the hotel. The ball entered his breast between the second and third ribs, ranging downwards, passing near if not striking his heart. McCoy was taken immediately to the hotel kitchen where he died in 25 or 30 minutes. Wilkinson left that night, but came in Tuesday evening and gave himself up to the legal authorities. As Wilkinson is in the hands of the law, we forbear attempting to give particulars according to rumors as they vary somewhat. The prisoner is now under guard, but the time of his trial has not yet been set, as we understand that it is not yet determined who it will be tried before or who will prosecute the case, as Judge Myers' wife is a relative of the prisoner and County Attorney Godbey is a brother-in-law.

—There is much feeling in this section over the shooting of Wm. Moore, son of Mr. George Moore, between here and Middleburg, last week. About 10 o'clock at night some person came to the yard fence of Mr. George Grider and called for that gentleman. His wife responded and told him that her husband was not at home. The call was repeated afterward and the wife gave the same reply. About 11 o'clock young William Moore, a brother-in-law of Mr. Grider, who lives with him, came home riding one of Mr. Grider's mules. Having to dismount to unfasten the gate and while stooping to unlatch a chain, some person from behind the other gate poked a rifle through the door, fired a load of buck shot through the door and killed him. McMillin was released at the examining trial. The "white caps" may do a good work sometimes, but it is a bad way to enforce right, and those who take the law into their own hands must bear the penalty if they fail, and cannot ask protection when they are violators themselves.

HUBBLE.

—On account of the death of Mr. Lewis Daddarar, the marriage of Mr. Robert R. Gentry has been postponed for a few days.

—What has become of the colored man since the election? They are so scarce here now that the sausage meat in the community has to be ground by the house girls.

—The turkey trade of this country has become enormous. In this immediate vicinity there have been $1,674 worth sold since Oct. 20, of which $438 worth was received here in one day. Just think what an amount in the county and State in the same proportion!

—Corn in this vicinity is selling at $1.75 to $1.85 at the heap and $2 delivered, which is less than last year's prices, with not half the corn that there was then. Tom Wood has gathered up all the sheaths in this locality at 4 to 4½¢ and shipped them to Winchester for cattle men.

—Mr. Frank Holtzclaw and wife will remain at her father's, W. H. Underwood, for the coming season. Dr. Cicero Eubanks and wife, of Paducah, gave his father a flying visit this week. He is said to be doing a fine practice and promises to be one of the first physicians of that city.

—Prof. Joseph E. Robinson was up from Bradfordsville to spend Thanksgiving with his father. J. W. Bright's new house is nearing completion. Mrs. C. C. Link, of Danville, has been visiting her father, A. C. Carman. E. S. Bell, who has made us a good citizen for the past year, will move to Adam Pence's about Jan. 1.

—Now since the democratic party has every reason to be encouraged in its efforts for reform in the tariff, etc., let the State of Kentucky make some reform and the county of Lincoln some changes, that the people who have so earnestly and unanimously given us their support in this struggle may not become dissatisfied during the coming four years. People have double the curiosity they once had and are more enlightened, and nearer than ever ready to give anything a trial that seems for the better or will not make things worse. Therefore to remain in power implies to do something for the betterment of the voters of this county, this State and these United States. Strengthen the party by electing the best democrats to office in county and State, who will enact the most wholesome county and State laws; or the people at large and especially the young converts, who are just making their first fight for better times, will soon become tired of the expression, "Turn the rascals out," if in their place we put thieves.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Circuit court begins here next Monday. This will be Judge Boyd's last court.

—Judge Stinson heard the contest of Sam Freeman's will last Saturday and admitted same to probate.

—Messrs. R. S. Crawford and I. J. Foley went down into Wayne county last week to buy some hogs, but did not find any.

—Mrs. G. A. Denham, who has been very sick, is much improved and will be able to be out again soon. Mr. E. E. Wilson spent Thanksgiving with his parents at Fincastle, Tenn.

—Several of our young people went to call on Miss Sallie Flora, who is now visiting at Dr. Adkins', last Monday evening. Miss Flora leaves Thursday to visit friends in Stanford.

—Mr. B. F. Rose spent last Sunday with his father, near Jellico, whose health is very bad. C. W. Lester left last Tuesday night for Louisville and Frankfort on legal business.

—Your correspondent took Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. F. A. Gurney. It was a day that will be long remembered by the three young men who were there and appreciated as only young men who are away from home can appreciate a hospitable welcome.

—Mrs. J. L. Whitehead entertained a number of her friends last Thursday evening. D. F. Chestnut, editor of the Corbin Enterprise, was down last Tuesday. Sheriff M. A. Moore spent last Sunday with his daughters at Nazareth, where they are at school. Mr. J. H. Davis is building a large livery and feed stable. This will be the first one Williamsburg ever had that deserved the name.

—It was with much regret the people here heard of the murder of Sid Wortham, at Jellico. The good class of citizens had organized a band to rid the town of all the prostitutes and had run a great many of them off, after giving them severe whippings, and this time McMillin, a brother of Mrs. Jonas, was prepared and when Wortham attempted to break open the door, fired a load of buck shot through the door and killed him. McMillin was released at the examining trial. The "white caps" may do a good work sometimes, but it is a bad way to enforce right, and those who take the law into their own hands must bear the penalty if they fail, and cannot ask protection when they are violators themselves.

DANVILLE.

—Malinda, wife of Wes Cook, colored, died Tuesday. They came here from about Hustonville.

—A hay baler fell on the hand and wrist of H. W. French, Wednesday, and wounded both severely.

—Mr. J. B. Nichols has returned from a visit to Rockcastle county. Col. Wm. Drake has returned from Woodford county. His daughter, Miss Mary, is still very ill.

—Mac Fry, the colored boy implicated in the bird stealing transaction mentioned elsewhere, surrendered Thursday morning and was sent to the work-house for 30 days.

—Finn Phillips and Gene Owens went to Jo Turner's house, back of Parksville, and raised a row, during which Turner struck Phillips over the head with a shot gun and fractured his skull. He is now in a serious condition. Phillips and Owens were drunk and are said to have acted outrageously.

—Saturday, Dec. 3d, Mr. and Mrs. Losey will give dramatic recitals at the Opera House. This entertainment is another of the Centre College Y. M. C. A. course. Mr. and Mrs. Losey are eloquentists of a high order and are under the management of the Southern Lyceum Bureau of Louisville.

—Engineer John McLeod, of Louisville, is now here and will examine all the big springs and other proposed sources of water supply in this vicinity. Our people are at last wide awake on the subject of water works and they will be doubtless built if a sufficient supply of water can be found that is available.

—W. L. Sharp, as administrator of John E. Gresham, deceased, has brought suit for $30,000 against the L. & N. road for killing decedent at Junction City over a year ago. Gresham was 10 years old and was crossing defendant's track when killed. R. J. Breckinridge and Robert Harding are attorneys for the plaintiff.

—Geo. Russell brought a lot of part-ridges from the West End, Wednesday, and while offering them for sale on 2d street John Marshall, colored, stole a dozen and handed them to Mac Fry, who made off with them, but was overtaken by Russell, who recovered the birds. John was sent to the work-house for 30 days and Mac has not yet been arrested.

—Rev. Geo. O. Barnes and family were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Bogle, Wednesday evening, leaving Thursday morning for Stanford. Messrs. R. E. Hughes and Wm. H. Collier, of Lancaster, were in town Wednesday. Mr. James Peters, who has lived on the place formerly owned by C. S. Jackson for three years past, left Wednesday for Dayton, Ky., where he expects to make his home hereafter.

—Post-master VanPelt has been criticised to some extent on account of his unceasing efforts to prevent smoking in the lobby of the post-office. Yet, if those who criticize most only knew how disagreeable tobacco smoke is to all who handle the mails, especially to Mr. V.'s daughter, Miss Hallie, and if they knew, also, that when once the inside of the office becomes filled with smoke there is practically no escape for it, they would modify their criticisms, or what is better, cease them altogether.

—New Jersey's official vote gives Mr. Cleveland 14,954 plurality. The prohibition man got 8,131, an increase of about 1,000 since 1888.

—The vote in California, as the count nears completion, appears to be so close that the slight variation in the votes for different electors may divide the electoral vote between Harrison and Cleveland. As the count now stands Harrison is only 320 votes ahead on the highest elector.

—George Harris persisted in showing marked attention to the widow of Lillburn Rogers, colored, at Richmond, Ind. and the colored people of that place showed their good sense by taking him out and swinging him to a tree till he swore he would leave the country never more to return, if he was released.

—A jury in the Federal Court at Nashville Tuesday decided that when whisky in a bonded warehouse is destroyed by fire, the tax on the whisky not having been paid, the owners of the whisky are liable to the government for the full amount of the tax and interest on this amount till paid.

—A dispatch to the Enquirer from Ekmore, Va., states that ex-President Cleveland bagged 125 ducks in a little over an hour's time. The dispatch also adds that 53 were brought down with one shot. Ananias has certainly taken up his abode in that portion of the Old Dominion and he is doing lots of newspaper work.

—The annual report of the treasurer of the United States shows a decrease of $37,674,663 in the net ordinary revenues for the past fiscal year, and a decrease of $10,349,354 in the net ordinary expenditures. The total receipts for the year are given as $736,401,296. The public debt June 30, 1892, is stated as $1,588,464,144, an increase of $42,107,533 during the year.
